

Count your blessings...

For the glory of God, and the spiritual edification of those who read these testimonies

Subject: The Alabaster box: Matthew 26:7-13

What a wonderful story we read of this woman with her alabaster box. The alabaster box is part of a Jewish virgin's most prized possession, only given to her husband on her wedding day!

This woman took her alabaster box and anointed Jesus, using her hair to wipe His feet. She took her most prized possession, the best thing she had, and gave to Jesus, used it for His glory! In other words, she claimed Jesus as her bridegroom, the love of her life! Imagine how she must have felt, being at the feet of her bridegroom, wiping His feet with her hair – hair speak of a woman's glory. Likewise, whatever glory we possess or is given on earth, should be used or given to Jesus, because our glory should not be received on earth, but we await this from Jesus above.

Truly, this story can be told with great joy because we desire to do the same as this woman. Are we giving our best to Jesus? Are we giving our best time (getting up early) and sitting at the feet of our bridegroom? What a joy it is to do this for our Jesus!

